Lance Armstrong's mother selected as Keynote Speaker at the YWCA's 2011 TWIN Awards June 21

The YWCA of San Diego County has announced Linda Armstrong Kelly, mother of seven-time Tour de France champion Lance Armstrong, as the keynote speaker for its annual Tribute to Women & Industry (TWIN) Awards, which will be held June 21. This historic event recognizes outstanding women professionals and the companies who support them, while raising financial support and awareness for local programs and services for women, children, and families who are working to break the cycle of domestic violence and homelessness.

The TWIN luncheon will be held from noon to 1:30 p.m. in the Grande Ballroom at the Sheraton Hotel and Marina, located at 1380 Harbor Island Drive (San Diego, CA 92101). This annual event includes an inspiring recognition ceremony, a summer-inspired lunch, networking, and a special message from successful entrepreneur and motivational speaker Linda Armstrong Kelly. Carol LeBeau, former San Diego News Anchor and Motivational Speaker will serve as the Mistress of Ceremonies.

TWIN serves as one of the YWCA's largest fundraising events and funds raised through the event help over 4,000 women and children a year. The event is open to the public. Tickets are $150 per person. For more information on the YWCA or to purchase tickets to TWIN, please visit www.ywcasandiego.org or call 619-239-0355, ext. 218.
