Law Briefs

By Doug Sherwin

Fish & Richardson associate Lara Garner has been honored by the YWCA with a Tribute to Women & Industry (TWIN) award for her outstanding achievements and contributions to the San Diego legal community.

Beginning in 2004, she provided pro bono services in a lawsuit Fish & Richardson and the Western Center on Law and Poverty brought against the county of San Diego regarding the county's policies for providing health-care services to indigent and working poor residents. For her work, Garner was the first law firm associate to receive the Fair Shake Award by the Western Center on Law and Poverty.

She has served as chairperson of Fish's Litigation Associates Advisory Committee and was chosen by her peers to serve as the associate liaison, to work to identify issues of importance to the associates and work with the firm's management to address them.
